

ACTIVITY 6 - GARIWERD GAMES

Fun and games ... with a purpose

Australian Rules football is a distinctive game, and research shows it may have begun right here in Gariwerd!

Games are important in all cultures, and people use the environment to source materials for their games equipment.

Traditional sports and games connect to those played today. At Brambuk, discover the links between culture and environment, and the role games play in society.

